This Cookie Policy explains cookies and similar technologies used on InkBy.AI and how to control them. For personal data details, see the Privacy Policy.

1. Categories of cookies

Category	Purpose	Examples
Strictly necessary	Security and basic operation.	Session/security cookies
Preferences	Remember choices and UI settings.	Language preference
Analytics (optional)	Measure usage and improve performance.	Traffic metrics
Advertising (optional)	Serve/measure ads; personalization depends on consent.	Ad network cookies/pixels

Where required (e.g., EEA/UK), we request consent before placing non-essential cookies (analytics/advertising).

2. Advertising partners (Google AdSense)

We may use Google advertising products (such as AdSense) and/or other partners. They may set identifiers to serve ads, measure performance, and detect fraud. Personalized ads depend on your consent and partner settings.

3. Managing cookies

• Use the CookieYes "cookie settings" link to accept/reject optional categories and withdraw consent.

• Use your browser settings to delete or block cookies.

• Manage Google ad personalization in Google's ad settings/My Ad Center if applicable.
